HESTER PRYNNE IN FRONT

FLEET FILLY WINS R. T. WILSON HIS FIRST RACE AT NEW ORLEANS.

Dr. Larrick Runs a Fast Race and Wins in a Canter -Gabrio Furnishes a Surprise-Deliver Shows Great Speed.

New Orleans, La., January 10.—Another surprisingly large crowd visited the Fair Grounds this afternoon and enjoyed some excellent racing. Weather and track conditions were again ideal. Rain, which fell heavily in the downtown district, failed entirely to reach the track. The fields were larger than heretofore and the even caliber of the starters bought about lively speculation in the Palm Garden.

R. T. Wilson's colors were carried to victory for the first time at the meeting, when Hester Prynne won in a sharp drive with Gloaming. Abara, which was reckoned dangerous before the start, ran poorly.

which was reckoned dangerous before the start, ran poorly.

Dr. Larrick showed a fine performance in the mile selling handicap which he won in easy fashion over Ambrose and Manasseh. He was eased up to a canter in the last eighth and had he been urged he might have reduced the track record of 1:38%.

Gabrio, quoted at surprisingly long odds, won from Presumption and Sir L. Joe had no difficulty in leading home the band that ran in the opening dash.

The increase in purses which goes into effect next Monday will only be applicable to condition races and handicaps for the present. Later it is expected there will be an increase in all purses.

Edward Trotter arrived yesterday from Charleston, S. C., with Joe Finn. Mr. Trotter said that the horses of S. A. Clopton, W. B. Jennings and Phil Chinn are wintering in splendid condition at Palmetto Park and that the Chinn, youngsters are a promising band. Nearly all are English-bred.

George Reif was an arrival today from New York. He is in quest of some horses to race in the east next summer.

O. A. Bianchi (Daggie Smith) was an arrival today from California en route to Kentucky. He was immensely pleased with racing conditions here. Only 190 stakeholders were employed this afternoon. Trainer F. H. Sevin was severely injured yesterday and is in a local hospital in a serious condition as a result of attempting to stop Col. Fred in a runaway on the track yesterday.

R. F. Carman stated today that he would keep Meridian, The Turk, Surprising and the broodmares he owns at the Benning track until he can secure a suitable location for a stock farm. He will try, while here, to purchase several additional mares for breeding purposes.

Deliver scored her second victory of the meeting and furnished a suprise by equalling the track record in the fifth race.

Starter Dade rescinded his suspension of jockey T. Rice and that rider will be allowed to accept victory in the fifth race.

ONE OF ENGLAND'S MOST NOTED HORSES.

Grand Weight-Carrying Exploits of Bendigo Important Handicaps.

One of the most popular animals to carry silk during the past thirty years or so was a dark brown colt foaled at The Curragh in 1880. This colt was by Ben Battle out of Hasty Girl, and was given the name of Bendigo. The youngster was about to be got ready for his two-year-old liabilities when his owner died, and the engagements became void. As a result Bendigo did not run in his juvenile days.

WHAT THE GREENTREE STABLE HORSES ACCOMPLISHED IN LAST YEAR'S RACING

With a combination of flat racers and steeplechasers, the Greentree Stable fared quite prosperously in racing of 1915 and carned a comfortable sum for its fair owner. Of the contributors the useful four-rold Gainer was the most successful and can race to good purpose when at his best, The good jumper try Malotte was second to Gainer in money won and much more than paid her way. Virile and the dy Etruscan each won in excess of $2,000 and the record of the stable was as follows:

the rear. Having regard to the fact that the colt had run well up to the Bushes in his previous race, it was somewhat remarkable that he was permitted to start at 50 to 1 for the Houghton handicap. His Cambridgeshire victory naturally sent him up in the scale, and in his only other race in that season, the Liverpool Cup, he was set to carry 123 pounds, and failed to obtain a place.

Up to that period Bendigo had been in the care of French at Rossmore Lodge, but before another season had come round he was transferred to Joulife's stable at Lambourn. His new trainer experienced some trouble with the son of Ben Battle, which was only able to compete in three races as a four-year-old. He made no show in the Stewards' Cup, but put up a capital performance in his second Cambridgeshire a few menths later. He, however, met one too good for him in Flerence, which completed a memorable "double" for Mr. "Jack" Hammonds, whose St. Gatien had credited him with the Cestrewitch a fortnight previously. Bendigo's last appearance of the year was in the Chetwynd Plate, for which he started favorite, but was unplaced to Energy.

As a five-year-old Bendigo also competed in three events. The first of these was the Lincolnshire Handicap in the opening week of the season. He was handicapped to carry 117 pounds, which, in view of his Cambridgeshire form, was not an undue burden. Starting favorite at 11 to 4 against, Bendigo won by three parts of a lengths from the useful Bird of Freedom (in receipt of thirty-two pounds), McMahon being third. His next essay was in the Hardwicke Stakes at Ascot, which he won in a canter from Wille Darling, with Crafton third. Following this, be made his third attack on the Cambridgeshire, by this time he was well looked after by the adjuster of weights, and in the event under consideration had 134 pounds in the saddle. He again had to put up with second place, the winner being that splendid French three-year-old Plaisanterie, whose 124 pounds included a four-teen pound penalty as the result of a Cesarewi with the favorite and Aintree running a dead heat for third place.

Later in the week he was saddled for the Hardwicke Stakes, for which Ormonde, Minting and Phil were the remaining runners. This celebrated race, which has been the subject of frequent reference since, was generally regarded as in the nature of a match between the Duke of Westminster's champion and Minting, which had not met since their three-year-old days. Slight odds were laid on Ormonde, Minting being quoted at 7 to 4 and Bendigo at 100 to 8. Bendigo was well beaten on this occasion, finishing three length behind Minting, which in turn met his match in Ormonde, though it was only by a neck that the latter obtained the victory after a terrific race.

Following this Bendigo returned to the handicaponly by a neck that the latter obtained the victory after a terrific race.

Following this Bendigo returned to the handicaping line of business, being one of the starters for the Cesarewitch, in which his burden was 130 pounds. This proved more than he could successfully carry, though he accounted for all save Humewood, which put up five pounds extra for the services of Robinson, the present-day trainer, Lord Rodney's three-year-old winning by a length and a half, with Carlton, which was also carrying a big weight, a bad third. Among those in the rear were the disappointing Baron, Gay Hermit, Eurasian, Exmoor, The Cob, Stone Clink and Althorp. Later in the week Bendigo easily won the Champion Stakes from St. Mirin.

His final race was the Cambridgeship.

St. Mirin.

His final race was the Cambridgeshire, in which he was set to carry 139 pounds. For the third time in his career he filled second place in the chief handicap of the Houghton meeting. Mr. Barclay's wonderful horse failing by a helf length to concede thirty-five pounds to Gloriation, a three-year-old owned by Mr. R. C. Vyner. Among those unplaced were Carlton, Humewood, St. Mirin and Reve d'Or. Subsequent to his racing days Bendigo had a long career at the stud. He died in 1904, at the age of twenty-four and was buried at Gaddesby.—"J. F. P." in London Sporting Life.

OUTLINES OF THE COLIN-ACALOT COLT.

during the past thirty years or so was a dark brown colt fouled at The Curragh in 1880. This colt was by Ben Battle out of Hasty Girl, and was given the name of Bendigo. The youngster was about to be got ready for his two-year-old liabilities when his owner died, and the engagements became youd. As a result Bendigo did not run in his Juvenile days.

As a matter of fact his debut was deferred untit the autumn of his third year, when, carrying the colors of Mr. H. T. Barclay, into whose possession he had passed, he took part in the Cesarewitch. In this race he had but 91 pounds to carry, though his rider, Gallon, put up two pounds overweight. Bendigo was not fancied on this occasion, however, being on offer at 40 to 1 against, and the race was won by Don Juan, whose success—confidently anticipated by his connections—hit the ring pretty badly.

A fortnight later Bendigo, ridden by Luke, and carrying 94 pounds, won the Cambridgeshire by a neck from Tonans, with several useful horses in and a long backward slope of the withers causes him to show a great deal of horse in front of the saddle.

"He is an unusually long-bodied colt, and yet his back is exceptionally short, while his great, massive barrel comes so nearly being a perfect cylinder, expanding greatly just behind his massive and muscular shoulders, that he is afforded wonderful lung space. The great volume of barrel is carried right back to a flank which is deep and full.

"Relatively his quarters are considerably higher than his withers, the sweep of his broad, muscular loin mounting in a convex curve to a considerably higher cross-section at the hips than might be expected in a horse of any age.

"In this connection it should be added that his hip-points are not especially high, but the height between them is made up of heavy layers of muscle, which sweep backward toward a broad and rather high croup. His quarters are both rangy and massive and exquisitely finished in artistically graceful outlines.

"In the upper outline his quarters look wide and massive, but lower down and opposite the concave curve of the flank, his enormously thick and well let down stifies cause the outline to still farther expand, for his stifles are nothing short of enormous. Lower down, his gaskins, which are well sprung, carry such swelling masses of muscle on the outside that there seems to be no contraction of the vertical outline as it nears his big clean hocks, which are set squarely and wide apart. On the hisde of his gaskins he has a development of muscle which might be termed phenomenal. In this respect no well-known thoroughbred of this country has equalled him, unless it be thenry of Navarre.

"This colt has a wonderfully broad chest, which is both full and deep, but, with all this, the arch between his forelegs seems to be perfection itself. His arms and the development of muscle above them are both enormous; his knees and hocks are above them are both enormous; his knees and hocks are large, clean and perfectly formed, and his cannon bones are sh

Sentiment counts for a good deal even where racing is concerned, for which reason one notes with satisfaction the announcement in the current issue of the Calendar that the York Race Committee have decided, in the event of it being found impossible to hold the meeting on the Knavesmire next August, to give 200 sovereigns for the purpose of a race to be run at headquarters in the summer or autumn. Such race is to be confined to horses originally entered in the Gimerack Stakes, and be run under similar conditions. Whether the fortunate owner of the winner will be privileged to make the chief speech at the annual dinner of the Gimerack Club, in accordance with custom, deponent knoweth not; but it is reasonable to assume that such will be the case. There have been some memorable speeches at this particular dinner, and if circumstances render it necessary that the race, or a substitute thereof has to be run elsewhere, one hopes, as said, that the owner of the winner will be permitted to pass on to posterity his views on the burning topic of the moment. Of course, a "Gimerack" run at a place other than York would be more or less in the nature of make-believe; but we are getting accustomed to this sort of thing. After all, last season's "Derby" and "St. Leger," though decided on "foreign soil," quite justified themselves. So also would the Gimerack.—"Augur" in London Sporting Life.

NOTE OF DISCORD FROM CANADA.

Toronto, Ont., January 10.—A writ issued on behalf of B. Hepburn of Picton, Ont., against the Connaught Park Jockey Club for $10,000 damages for non-fulfillment of an agreement, is taken as an indication of the collapse of the plan to bhild a new race course under authority of an old charter, which was disposed of by the Ottawa club. Mr. Hepburn is a member of the Dominion parliament for the county of Prince Edward, but as there was no intention of building in that neighborhood, a rural consituency, it is understood that the Windsor territory was the place in view with the purchasers of the charter, but obstacles they did not forsee prevented any action there. Now, claiming that the charter is worthless, they have entered this action. No notice has been received by the Connaught club of the filing of the suit. It is understood here that Albert Robrback, former manager of Connaught Park, was the moving spirit in the Windsor proposition.
